Headteachers Awards Awarded 8th November 2024

- Reception: This week in Reception class all of the children have come back to school ready to learn and full of confidence. They have fully immersed themselves in our new topic 'Festivals and Celebrations' and are enjoying learning new things. The Head Teachers awards this week went to:
Kyle for his excellent effort in phonics and always being kind.
Jett for working hard in maths this week and creating a fantastic dinosaur house with his friends!
- Year 1: Congratulations to Poppy who gained a Headteacher award last week for following the school rules at all times and having great manners! Well done!
- Year 2: Year 2 have had a busy week starting addition in maths and in English starting our new story, "The Snow Queen".
The awards last week went to Ruby for really having a good go at her cold writing. Ruby, at times, can find it tricky to focus and organise her thoughts before writing, but this time she worked hard and didn't need support to complete it!
Lola L has had a great week this week. We've noticed that she is engaging much more with her learning and is more keen to offer suggestions or answer questions on the carpet. Well done Ruby and Lola!
- Year 3: Headteacher awards last week went to Skyla and Jake. Both Mrs Hill and I were impressed with these children enjoying their learning. They had an amazing week where they tried their hardest in all lessons. It was lovely to see both of them putting their hands up to answer lots of questions and getting fully involved in all aspects of their learning. Both displayed great self-regulating behaviours and followed the school rules all week. What a fantastic week for both of them! Please keep it up!
- Year 4: Well done to Eva for producing some super adverb sentences this week in English!
Well done to Ellis for fantastic 3-step questions in his addition this week!
- Year 5: This week in Year 5 Bea got the first award for her dedication and enthusiasm to our new topic World War 2. She showed a fantastic attitude as well as empathy in Shared Reading, English and History which all linked to our new topic. Keep it up Bea! The second certificate went to Harry. This was because he was really focused in our Writing lessons on Thursday and Friday. He added in some great descriptions about the Dunkirk Poem we have been studying. He also wrote a decent amount in a short period of time. Keep up the good work Harry.
- Year 6: Well done to Marshall for showing a positive attitude to his learning this week and asking some really brilliant questions to find out more about what we have been learning.
Congratulations to Harrison for settling in really well after some time off and putting in a lot of effort. It's great to have him back and seeing how much he is learning already.

Remembrance Sunday

A huge thank you to Bella, Maisie, Kezia, Rosie, Paige, Georgia and Liam who took part in the Remembrance Service at St. Gomonda's Church, Roche last Sunday.

They sang beautifully and read out the roll of honour clearly and respectfully. As always, they represented our school really well.

Well done to all pupils from Roche School who represented various groups and clubs in Roche and all around the local area. We are very proud of you.

Activities outside of School

The weekend at the start of half term, Kezia, cut, sanded and painted a new plaque for the house number to go on. She also cleaned and polished the brass house numbers and screwed them to the plaque!

Well done Kezia! We love this!

If you've baked a cake or made something outside of school, please send your photos to reception@roche.tpacademytrust.org to be featured on the newsletter.

Home Learning

Florence has loved learning about Guy Fawkes, with lots of interest and lots of questions at home! She made two pictures for her home learning from last week.

The first was a picture of a bonfire and she even found a stick and placed it on the top to represent Guy Fawkes. She then painted a picture of some fireworks, inspired from the firework display she saw!

Well done Florence! We love your home learning!

Activities outside of school

On Sunday, James and his brother Thomas, entered their chickens in the Cornish Federation Poultry Show and came away with a first, a second and 2 third prizes!

This is only their 3rd show they've entered so a big achievement.

Home Learning

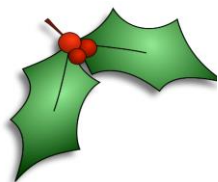

Alfie in Reception Class has been really busy at home!

Here he is pictured with his 'monster cookies' he made as a sweet treat for Diwali (the current topic in Reception Class).

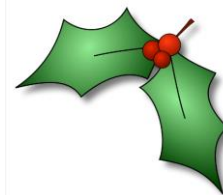

They look delicious Alfie! You've done a great job! Maybe Mrs Whitford in the school kitchen would like your recipe!

Year 6

Please do log on to Parent Pay and complete the consent information.

Many thanks.

Mrs Garratt

We say cheerio to Mrs Garratt who starts her maternity leave from today.

Mrs Garratt was truly overwhelmed by the kind and thoughtful gifts which have been given to her today by the Reception Class children.

Good luck Mrs Garratt, we can't wait to meet your baby!

Nativity Costumes

If you have any nativity-type dressing up you could donate to school, we'd really appreciate it! We are looking for any of the below picture or similar.
